

Book the Rapper Song # 7

I'm a book...
I'm a rapper...
I'm book the rapper
I'm book the rapper

I'm going to rap a story to you
So sit back and relax
Until I'm all through

I can read...I can rap
Snap...snap
I can read...I can rap
Snap...snap

Once upon a time not long ago
I took a walk to the picture show
The movie was great...
But I wanted more
So I took a walk to the book store

I read to book both day and night
I had to use a flashlight

The book was about three little boys
Who invented this awesome toy

The toy was different than any thing I've seen
It was so unique...
I had to scream

What do you think the toy was about
When you find out you are going to shout

So grab a book and sit right down
Cause book the rapper
Has made it to town

I'm a book...I'm a rapper
I'm book the rapper
I'm book the rapper

I can read...I can rap
Snap...snap
I can read...I can rap
Snap...snap

I can read...I can rap
Snap...snap
